Meeting Agenda/Notes

Share your interests and expertise by creating a public profile that others can find. Learn how to update your profile, highlight your publications, and provide your contact information. Connect to and discover others with similar interests by using keywords. Also, learn how to set up your email preferences and how to assign a delegate to manage your profile.

Training topics:

- Profile
- Contact information
- Upload PubMed and PMC publications
- Affiliations to other Labnodes communities
- Assign a delegate
- Set email preferences

We will also review previous workshop topics such as How to Share Resources, Create a Workgroup, Manage a Community, and more.
